Cloudforce is a cloud services company that creates, migrates, and maintains custom cloud solutions that make businesses run better. They needed a larger office space as their staff grew from four to over 50 people within the space of a few years. Cloudforce came to Poppin for help turning their new office space into a thriving and functional hybrid workplace that could keep up with an expanding staff.

The Goal:

- Design a functional hybrid office in Cloudforce's new space.
- Create a workspace that can keep up with their growing headcount.
- Incorporate clever solutions for multipurpose spaces.

The Solution:

- Create productivity, collaboration, and quiet refuge spaces within the open office.
- Fully utilize all available space.
- Provide flexible solutions designed to grow, move, and adapt.

Make Some Space

Lounge in Style

Cloudforce needed adaptable solutions for multipurpose spaces. Made with flexibility in mind, our lounge furniture provides seating for community meetings and activities.

Breaktime

PoppinPods provide a place for employees to retreat from the hustle and bustle of the open office for video and phone calls or a moment of focus time.

Play Hard

Hosting everything from client meetings to Friday afternoon beer pong in Cloudforce's office, nothing embodies the work hard, play hard ethos quite like our Series A Ping-Pong Conference Table.

Take a Stand

Casual seating encourages social interaction between coworkers. Our standing tables set the scene for informal chats.

Free Space Planning

We'll help you make the most of your floor plan with our free, fast space planning services. Whether you're moving, expanding, or optimizing your office for hybrid work, our team can help you discover your space's full potential.

“

Poppin furniture is thoughtful, it's modern. The process was very straightforward.

Community Center

Cloudforce's new community space hosts everything from Friday lunches to ping-pong games on our Series A Ping-Pong Conference Table.

Let's Meet in Person

Cloudforce's thoughtfully designed meeting rooms, featuring our Pitch Meeting Chairs and Series A Table, are fully tech-enabled to support both virtual and in-person meetings.

Better Together

Our friendly team was there every step of the way with space planning advice to make sure Cloudforce's office space was just right.

In Flux

With our modern lounge and meeting seating that can be rearranged at a moment's notice, Cloudforce's flexible community space is the heartbeat of their office.
